

Georgia A. Urling, 81 passed peacefully at her home February 21, 2010. Georgia affectionately was known by her family as 'Flubby' and "Sweet Pea". Ms. Georgia A. Urling, a Real Estate broker for 61 years, dedicated her live to helping many communities. Georgia soared in accomplishing anything she put her hands on. Her interaction with people and her life were absolutely amazing. Georgia's success was based upon personal interaction with clients and an intimate knowledge of all towns she worked in. One of Georgia's' greatest accomplishments was the opening of First Prestige Mortgage Services, Inc in May 1998 in New Jersey , a licensed Mortgage Broker with the Dept of Banking & Insurance where she worked as a principal of the company with her daughter Autumn M. Urling. Not only did she accomplish this goal, she reached even higher levels by guiding Autumn to follow in her footsteps, becoming a Real Estate Broker for Urling Real Estate Company in New York and New Jersey.

Georgia is survived by her children, Sandra Johnson Powell (John Powell, son-in-law) Bonnie Johnson, Marcia Urling and Autumn Urling. Her adopted daughter Ellen Kennelly and son Gaynor Lowell Singh

Georgia was preceded in death by her son Edgar "Kip" Urling Jr. Georgia A. Urling is "Love"
